Luigi's Ristorante History

Luigi's originated in 1984 in Clymer, PA a small community in Indiana County.

The Clymer location was originally a tavern. William "Skip" Tate along with two of his sons, Louis and Edward, decided to buy the building and introduce an Italian menu to the area. With no prior restaurant experience, Louis and Edward were blessed with the help and guidance of their father, Skip and mother, Barbara.

Over the years, they learned many lessons from Skip and Barb on the "old school" methods of hard work and running a business. Their sisters and brothers, and some aunts, uncles and cousins continually lending a hand, has also played a large part in their success.

Our Family Heritage

The Tate family name was originally “Teti”. We come from the Abruzzi region in Italy, the Province of Chieti, and the town of Torricella Peligina. Our Grandfather always said the Abruzzese were the purest Italians, because the conquering armies could never get to their women – hidden high in the mountains.

Our Grandmother was from the Calabria region of Italy. It was her recipes that inspired a love for food and cooking in our father. Her recipes became his, and now we serve them to you.

Our parents, Barbara and Skip had seven children. We grew up as a close-knit Italian family with good food playing a very special role. Our parents have since passed away, but their delicious recipes and cooking methods are still used daily here at Luigi’s.
